1. Claims 26 and 35 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 5/28/2004.

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 16-25 and 27-34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. It is presumed that the means for engaging and means for sealing, as recited in the independent claims, are separate structures. The examiner is unable to precisely determine what those structures are and the equivalents thereof by reference to the specification. Note 35 USC 112, paragraph 6. It would appear that the means for engaging is the means for sealing. Note claim 32, for example. Should applicant wish to use both limitations, as now recited in the independent claims, or should applicant otherwise traverse the rejection the applicant may simply point out what the two separate structures are as taught in the specification, in order to have the rejection withdrawn.

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 16-25 and 27-34 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Kladders et al (cited by the examiner). The reference discloses all of the elements of the claims (note claim 16 for example). Additionally, should Kladders be later deemed to be missing an element or feature that is conventional, the examiner considers that it would have been obvious in view of Kladders to provide the apparatus therein with the missing element or feature for the purpose of improving the performance of the same, or better adapting the apparatus to hold particular content.
